Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

IP Base Intercom & PABX System

If you’ve ever called a major business you’ve likely listened to a menu and selected options to talk to the right person. That’s a PBX phone system and it’s a great way to avoid putting customers on hold as they travel to the right person within your organization.